9. CHALLENGES

 Public Service General Orders require all public sector employees to have a career plan in place – their respective departments and training should be linked to career paths. Help employees align their personal goals with divisional goals, encourage employee communication and cooperation and provide a work environment that is appropriate for the work and conductive to employee well-being so that the staffs are more productive;

- National Intelligence Organization is operating within limited resources. These limited resources include salary and allowances/benefits constraints, gender equality issues, culture issues and complicated and unfriendly concepts introduced in the Public Service thus making it difficult for National Intelligence Organization to progress one step further. In addition, gaps created as results of staff turnover or staff undertaking long term study at a senior level can influence priorities. The public, relevant portfolios and the Government more broadly need to understand this impact, and;
- Provide staff the opportunity and resources to identify and acquire the required skills and knowledge to perform their tasks to produce the desired output. Ensuring that all staff are trained on the operation of all specific IT or other tools relevant to efficiently undertaking their roles and responsibilities.
